ARTICLES ON CIA

MOSCOW TASS INTERNATIONAL SERVICE IN ENGLISH 1113Z 29 APR 66L

(TEXT) NEW YORK--FOR THE LAST FIVE DAYS THE NEW YORK TIMES HAS BEEN PUBLISHING HIGHLY REVEALING STORIES ON THE ACTIVITIES OF THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY--THE CENTER OF THE AMERICAN ESPIONAGE SYSTEM. THEY WERE WRITTEN BY SUCH INFORMED AMERICAN CORRESPONDENTS AS WICKER, FINNEY, FRANKEL, AND KENWORTHY. THEY PAINT AN UNSEEMLY PICTURE OF THE CIA'S SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES. THE NEW YORK TIMES REPORTS, BASED ON DOCUMENTARY MATERIAL, SHOW THAT THE UNITED STATES IS USING ILLEGAL MEANS TO INTERFERE IN THE AFFAIRS OF ASIAN, AFRICAN, AND LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. THE NEWSPAPER DESCRIBES THE CIA'S ACTIVITIES AS A SERIES OF DIRTY ILLEGAL ACTIONS INCLUDING POLITICAL BLACKMAIL, THE STAGING OF COUPS AND THE BYING OF ELECTIONS.

THE AUTHORS OF THE ARTICLES POINT OUT THAT THE CIA HAS UNLIMITED FUNDS AT ITS DISPOSAL AND USES THEM AT ITS DISCRETION AND WITHOUT ANY CONTROL. THEY ARRIVE AT THE CONCLUSION THAT THE CIA IS INTERFERING DEEPLY IN MANY SPHERES OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLITICAL AND DIPLOMATIC ACTIVITIES. THE FATE OF MANY PROBLEMS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE FOR THE DESTINY OF THE WORLD IS DECIDED AT THE CIA HEADQUARTERS.

IN THE CONCLUDING ARTICLE TODAY THE NEW YORK TIMES WRITES THAT THE CIA IS NOT AN "INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT" AT ALL, BUT IS THE REAL GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES; THE PAPER POINTS OUT THAT THE CIA IS SO FREE FROM CONTROL THAT NEITHER THE AMERICAN PEOPLE NOR CONGRESS CAN EASILY OBTAIN ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE ACTIVITIES OF THIS ORGANIZATION.
